Industry Solutions

Engineering & Construction

For thousands of years, the construction industry has responded to the issues of its day with innovation after innovation. Today's challenges are centered around saving energy, minimizing operating costs, and improving safety and occupant comfort. To address so many different challenges computer modeling is a must do

Consumer Goods

Consumer goods manufacturers are using engineering simulation to satisfy clients who are focused on low-cost, durable goods that, increasingly, offer energy efficiency. A product that lacks any of these qualifications may not survive the sales cycle

Automotive

Automotive Simulation is more important than ever in vehicle engineering with the innovation surge currently happening in the industry. Smart electronics, infotainment, telecommunications, advanced software – vehicle makers are delivering innovative, groundbreaking technologies to today's consumers
